WE NEGLECT EVERYTHING AUTHENTIC
WE REJECT AUTHENTIC SATISFACTION

As you run out of household items etc - write them on a list. Put washing in machine last thing at night so it's ready for hanging out early in the morning. Fold clothes out of washing machine, leave for one hour before hanging out. No ironing need ever be done by this method. Put dry trousers under mattress removes all creases.

RADIOHEAD

Authentic camouflage teeshirt - army winter issue. Printed with the RADIOHEAD logo on the front, and the above design on the back. Available in sizes MEDIUM and LARGE. Yours for the sum of £15.00.

Grey denim baseball cap. The cap is unstructured and has a relaxed crown, which means it actually fits your head rather than standing up like some kind of cranial extension. One size fits all, we hope. Not suitable for cats or tiny babies, but apart from that they're pretty adaptable. Embroidered on the front with a man attempting to inhale oxygen, and on the back with '0%' and the RADIOHEAD logo. Will stop sunburn of the head on sunny days. If you are bald, that is. And the price? It's £15.00.

XPORT FAILURE: a lime-green with black trim and black print. One size only, w chest. Fits boys, girls, and possibly even tiny babies sort of cloak in their case. Design Pri

XPORT FAILURE mini rucksack.

This is made, or recycled, from army surplus trousers, dyed black and customised with the XPORT FAILURE design (as above on lime green skinny tee) and a sewn-on w.a.s.t.e. products tab on the pocket. Will contain a large loaf of bread. Or lots of smaller things. Up to you, really. One size.

Price: £15.00

A century hence your grandchildren or great-grandchildren could be leading a blissful life
in perpetual sunshine
in a home among the stars.
They would live, with 10,000 others,
a huge habitat, or colony, floating in space some 350,000 km (240,000 miles) from the Earth and at an equal distance from the Moon.
The metal and glass used to build the space habitat would have been manufactured on site from ores mined on the Moon.
The population would live a self-contained existence, eating, drinking and inhaling solar energy, practising intensive agriculture, and recycling virtually everything so that waste would be no waste.

Also not available anywhere
but here, the w.a.s.t.e.
products charcoal grey teeshirt features the design shown below right on the front, and the w.a.s.t.e.
products logo on the back. In sizes
MEDIUM, LARGE, and EXTRA LARGE, priced at £12.00.

Be the first on your block to own a fine waste products shirt. Set yourself in the posture of success. Eat plenty of greens.
Brush your teeth after every meal.

PROCEDURE # 1
While resting in bed, calmly assemble all the facts about your anticipated achievement.
See yourself in the posture
of success.
Rule over your troublesome imagination.
Be a winner.
DELETE EVERYTHING
negative.be a winner.

Navy Blue RADIOPILL skinny teeshirt with white trim, with the same full colour transfer as item #6. One size only, which fits the usual type of human; boy, girl, grandmother, cloak-type garment for tiny babies. Oh yeah, it costs £15.00.
